

Bell Ringer

32) Characterization

Write the background story for the character you are portraying. Think about what questions your classmates asked you yesterday during the Hot Seat game when you were answering as your character. Use what you answered combined with what you know from the script to help write your character's story. Your paragraph must be at least 6 sentences long.